Act 32/1993

Cap. 272

Amended by 32/1993

(2) References in this Act to misusing a drug are references to misusing it by taking it; and the reference in the foregoing provision to the taking of a drug is a reference to the taking of it by a human being by way or any form of self administration, whether or not involving assistance by another.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, the things which a person has in his possession shall be taken to include any thing subject to his control which is in the custody of another.

The Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs.

3. (1) There shall be constituted in accordance with the Second Schedule an Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs; and the supplementary provisions contained in that Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Advisory Council.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Advisory Council to keep under review the situation in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines with respect to drugs which are being, or appear to them likely to be, misused and of which the misuse is having or appears to them capable of having harmful effects sufficient to constitute a health or social problem, and to give to the Minister, where either the Advisory Council considers it expedient to do so or they are consulted by the Minister, advice on measures (whether or not involving alteration of the law) which in the opinion of the Advisory Council ought to be taken for preventing the misuse of such drugs, or for dealing with health or social problems connected with their misuse, and in particular on measures which in the opinion of the Advisory Council ought to be taken—

- (a) for restricting the availability of such drugs, or for supervising the arrangements for their supply;
- (b) for enabling persons affected by the misuse of such drugs to obtain proper advice, and for securing the provision of proper facilities and services for the treatment, rehabilitation and after-care of such persons;
- (c) for promoting co-operation between the various professional and community services which in the opinion of the Advisory Council have a part to play in dealing with social problems connected with the misuse of such drugs;
- (d) for educating the public (and in particular the young) in the dangers of misusing such drugs; and for giving publicity to these dangers; and
- (e) for promoting research into, or otherwise obtaining information about, any matter which, in the opinion of the Advisory Council, is of relevance for the purpose of preventing the misuse of such drugs or dealing with any health or social problem connected with their misuse.

(3) It shall also be the duty of the Advisory Council to consider any matter relating to drug dependence or the misuse of drugs which may be referred to them by the Minister and to advise the Minister thereon.

4. (1) In this Act—

- (a) the expression “controlled drugs” means any substance or product for the time being specified in Part I, Part II, or Part III or the Third Schedule; and
- (b) the expression “Class A drug”, “Class B drug” and “Class C drug” means any of the substances and products for the time being specified respectively in Part I, Part II and Part III of the Third Schedule;

and the provisions of Part IV of that Schedule shall have effect with respect to the meanings of expressions used in that Schedule.

Controlled
drugs and their classifications.

(2) The Minister may, after consultation with or on the recommendation of the Advisory Council, by order in the Gazette, make such amendments to the Third Schedule as may be requisite for the purpose of adding any substance or product to, or removing any substance or product from, any of Parts I to III of that Schedule.

(3) An order under this section may amend Part IV of the Third Schedule, and may do so whether or not it amends any other Part of that Schedule.

Restriction of
importation
and exportation of controlled drugs.

5. (1) Subject to subsection (2)-

- (a) the importation of a controlled drug; and
- (b) the exportation of a controlled drug;

are prohibited.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply-

- (a) to the importation or exportation of a controlled drug which is for the time being excepted from paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) by regulations under section 9; or
- (b) to the importation and exportation of a controlled drug under and in accordance with the terms of a licence issued by the Minister and in compliance with any conditions attached thereto.

(3) Any person who imports or exports controlled drugs contrary to subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable to the penalties laid down in section 27.

Restriction of production and supply of controlled
drugs.

6. (1) Subject to any regulations under section 9 for the time being in force, it shall not be lawful for a person-

- (a) to produce a controlled drug; or
- (b) to supply, or offer to supply, a controlled drug to another.

(2) Subject to section 30, it is an offence for a person-

- (a) to produce a controlled drug in contravention of subsection (1); or
- (b) to be concerned in the production of such a drug by another person in contravention of that subsection.

(3) Subject to section 30, it is an offence for a person-

- (a) to supply or offer to supply a controlled drug to another in contravention of subsection (1);
- (b) to be concerned in the supply of such a drug to another in contravention of subsection (1); or
- (c) to be concerned in the making to another in contravention of subsection (1), of an offer to supply such a drug.

7. (1) Subject to any regulations under section 9 for the time being in force, it shall not be lawful for a person to have a controlled drug in his possession.

Restriction of possession of controlled drugs.

(2) Subject to subsection (5) and to section 30 it is an offence for a person to have a controlled drug in his possession in contravention of subsection (1).

(3) Subject to section 30, it is an offence for a person to have a controlled drug in his possession, whether lawfully or not, with intent to supply it to another in contravention of section 6(1).

(4) Subject to subsection (1), a person found in possession of the following controlled drugs in quantities of more than—

- (a) two grammes of diacetylmorphine (heroin),
- (b) one gramme of cocaine,
- (c) fifty-five grammes of opium,
- (d) three grammes of morphine, or
- (e) fifteen grammes of cannabis or cannabis resin, shall be deemed to be in possession of such controlled drug for the purpose of supplying it to another or for drug trafficking in contravention of section 6(1) unless the contrary is proved, the burden of proof being on the accused.

(5) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (2) in which it is proved that the accused had a controlled drug in his possession, it shall be a defence for him to prove—

- (a) that, knowing or suspecting it to be a controlled drug, he took possession of it for the purpose of preventing another from committing or continuing to commit an offence in connection with that drug and that, as soon as possible after taking possession of it, he took all such steps as were reasonably open to him to destroy the drug or to deliver it into the custody of a person lawfully entitled to take custody of it; or
- (b) that, knowing or suspecting it to be a controlled drug, he took possession of it for the purpose of delivering it into custody of a person lawfully entitled to take custody of it and that as soon as possible after taking possession of it he took all such steps as were reasonably open to him to deliver it into custody of such a person.

(6) Subsection (5) shall apply in the case of proceedings for an offence under section 20 consisting of an attempt to commit an offence under subsection (2) as it applies in the case of proceedings for an offence under subsection (2), subject to the following modifications that is to say—

- (a) for the references to the accused having in his possession, and to his taking possession of, a controlled drug there shall be substituted respectively references to his attempting to get, and to his attempting to take, possession of such a drug; and
- (b) in paragraphs (a) and (b) the words from "and that as soon as possible" onwards shall be omitted.

(7) Nothing in subsection (5) or (6) shall prejudice any defence which is open to a person charged with an offence under this section to raise apart from those subsections.

Restriction of cultivation of cannabis plant.

8. (1) Subject to any regulations under section 9 for the time being in force, it shall not be lawful for a person to cultivate any plant of the genus Cannabis, or to advise or encourage or counsel any other person or persons so to do.

(2) Subject to section 30, it is an offence to cultivate any such plant in contravention of subsection (1).

8A (1) It is an offence. . . . .

9. (1) The Minister may by regulations—

- (a) except from section 5(1) (a) or (b), 6(1) (a) or (b) or 7(1) such controlled drugs as may be specified in the regulations; and
- (b) make such other provisions as he thinks fit for the purpose of making it lawful for persons to do things which under the following provisions of this Act, that is to say, sections 6(1), 7(1) and 8(1), it would otherwise be unlawful for them to do.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) (b), regulations under that subsection authorising the doing of any such thing as is mentioned in that paragraph may in particular provide for the doing of that thing to be lawful—

- (a) if it is done under and in accordance with the terms of a licence or other authority issued by the Minister and in compliance with any conditions attached thereto; or
- (b) if it is done in compliance with such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Minister shall so exercise his powers to make regulations under subsection (1) as to secure—

- (a) that it is not unlawful under section 6(1) for a doctor, dentist or veterinary practitioner acting in his capacity as such, to prescribe, administer, manufacture, compound or supply a controlled drug, or for a druggist or a person lawfully conducting a retail pharmacy business, acting in either case in his capacity as such, to manufacture, compound or supply a controlled drug; and

Authorisation of activities otherwise unlawful under foregoing provisions.

- (b) that it is not unlawful under section 7(1) for a doctor, dentist, veterinary practitioner, druggist or person lawfully conducting a retail pharmacy business to have a controlled drug in his possession for the purpose of acting in his capacity as such.

(4) If in the case of a controlled drug the Minister is of the opinion that it is in the public interest—

- (a) for production, supply and possession of that drug to be either wholly unlawful or unlawful except for purposes of research or other special purposes; or
 (b) for it to be unlawful for practitioners, druggists and persons lawfully conducting retail pharmacy businesses to do in relation to that drug any of the things mentioned in subsection (3) except under a licence or other authority issued by the Minister, he may, by order, designate that drug as a drug to which this subsection applies; and while there is in force an order under this subsection designating a controlled drug as one to which this subsection applies, subsection (3) shall not apply as regards that drug.

(5) An order made under subsection (4) shall be subject to negative resolution of the House of Assembly.

(6) The Minister shall not normally make any order under subsection (4) except after consultation between him and the Advisory Council.

(7) References in this section to a person "doing" things include references to his having things in his possession.

10. A person commits an offence if, being the occupier or concerned in the management of any premises, he knowingly permits or suffers any of the following activities to take place on those premises, that is to say—

- (a) producing or attempting to produce a controlled drug in contravention of section 6(1);
 (b) supplying or attempting to supply a controlled drug to another in contravention of section 6(1), or offering to supply a controlled drug to another in contravention of section 6(1);
 (c) preparing cannabis, cannabis resin or opium for smoking; or
 (d) smoking cannabis, cannabis resin or prepared opium.

Occupiers etc. of premises to be punishable for permitting certain activities to take place there.

Prohibition of certain activities etc: relating to opium.

11. Subject to section 30, it is an offence for a person—
- (a) to smoke or otherwise use prepared opium;
  - (b) to frequent a place used for the purpose of opium smoking; or
  - (c) to have in his possession
    - (i) any pipes or other utensils made or adapted for use in connection with the smoking of opium, being pipes or utensils which have been used by him or with his knowledge and permission in that connection or which he intends to use or permit others to use in that connection; or
    - (ii) any utensils which have been used by him or with his knowledge and permission in connection with the preparation of opium for smoking.

Power to make regulations for preventing misuse of controlled drugs.

12. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Minister may, by regulations, make such provisions as appear to him necessary or expedient for preventing the misuse of controlled drugs.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations under this section may in particular make provisions—

- (a) for requiring precautions to be taken for the safe custody of controlled drugs;
- (b) for imposing requirements as to the documentation of transactions involving controlled drugs, and for requiring copies of documents relating to such transactions to be furnished to the prescribed authority;
- (c) for requiring the keeping of records and the furnishing of information with respect to controlled drugs in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed;
- (d) for the inspection of any precautions taken or records kept in pursuance of regulations under this section;
- (e) as to the packaging and labelling of controlled drugs;
- (f) for regulating the transport of controlled drugs and the methods used for destroying, or otherwise disposing of, such drugs when no longer required;
- (g) for regulating the issue of prescriptions containing controlled drugs and the supply of controlled drugs on prescriptions, and for requiring persons issuing or dispensing prescriptions containing such drugs to furnish to the prescribed authority such information relating to those prescriptions as may be prescribed;

- (h) for requiring any doctor who attends to any person whom he considers, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, is addicted, (within the meaning of the regulations) to controlled drugs of any description, to furnish to the prescribed authority such particulars with respect to that person as may be prescribed; and
- (i) for prohibiting any doctor or other person (whether qualified or not) from administering, supplying and authorising the administration and supply to persons so addicted, and from prescribing for such persons, such controlled drugs as may be prescribed, except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence issued by the Minister in pursuance of the regulations.

13. (1) Without prejudice to any requirement imposed by regulations made in pursuance of section 12(2) (a), the Minister may, by notice in writing served on the occupier of any premises on which controlled drugs are or are proposed to be kept, give directions as to the taking of precautions, or further precautions, for the safe custody of any controlled drugs of a description specified in the notice which are or are proposed to be kept on those premises.

Power to direct special precautions for safe custody of controlled drugs to be taken at certain premises.

(2) It is an offence to contravene any directions given under subsection (1).

14. (1) Where a person who is a practitioner or druggist has, on or after the 17th October, 1988, been convicted of an offence under this Act, the Minister may give a direction in writing under subsection (2) in respect of that person.

Directions prohibiting, prescribing, supplying etc., of controlled drugs by practitioners etc., convicted of certain offences.

(2) A direction under this subsection in respect of a person shall—

- (a) if that person is a practitioner, be a direction prohibiting him from having in his possession, prescribing, administering, manufacturing, compounding and supplying and from authorising the administration and supply of such controlled drugs as may be specified in the direction;
- (b) if that person is a druggist, be a direction prohibiting him from having in his possession, manufacturing, compounding and supplying and from supervising and controlling the manufacturing, compounding and supply of such controlled drugs as may be specified in the direction.

(3) The Minister may at any time give a direction cancelling or suspending any direction given by him under subsection (2), or cancelling any direction of his under this subsection by which a direction so given is suspended.

(4) The Minister shall cause a copy of any direction given by him under this section to be served on the person to whom it applies, and shall cause notice of any such direction to be published in the Gazette.

(5) A direction under this section shall take effect when a copy of it is served on the person to whom it applies.

(6) It is an offence to contravene a direction given under subsection (2).

Directions prohibiting, prescribing, supply etc. of controlled drugs by practitioners in other cases.

15. (1) In the event of a contravention by a doctor of regulations made in pursuance of section 12(2) (h) or (i) or of the terms of a licence issued under regulations made in pursuance of the said paragraph (i), the Minister may give a direction in respect of the doctor concerned prohibiting him from prescribing, administering and supplying, and from authorising the administration and supply of, such controlled drugs as may be specified in the direction.

(2) If the Minister is of the opinion that a practitioner is, or has after the coming into operation of this subsection been, prescribing, administering or supplying or authorising the administration or supply of any controlled drugs in an irresponsible manner, the Minister may, in consultation with the Advisory Council, give a direction in respect of the practitioner concerned supplying and from authorising the administration and supply of such controlled drugs as may be specified in the direction.

(3) A contravention such as is mentioned in subsection (1) does not as such constitute an offence, but is an offence to contravene a direction given under subsection (1) or (2).

Drug trafficking.

16. (1) A person who commits the offence of drug trafficking or of being in possession of a controlled drug for the purpose of drug trafficking is liable—

(a) on summary conviction—

(i) to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or, where there is evidence of the street value of the controlled drug, three times the street value of the controlled drug, whichever is the greater; and

(ii) to imprisonment for a term which may extend to ten years but which shall not be less than five years; or

(b) upon conviction on indictment to imprisonment for life.

(2) A person who commits the offence of drug trafficking in a substance other than a controlled drug, which he represents or holds out to be a controlled drug is liable—

(a) upon summary conviction, to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years; or

(b) upon conviction on indictment, to a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for five years.

(3) Subject to any regulations under section 9 for the time being in force, a person found in possession of a controlled drug in any school premises is deemed to have the controlled drug for the purpose of drug trafficking, unless the contrary is proved, the burden of proof being on the accused.

(4) In subsection (3) "school premises" includes buildings, playing fields or other premises established or maintained by a school for the benefit of its pupils whether or not such buildings, playing fields or other premises are within the curtilage of the school, and also includes any street, road or path in the immediate vicinity of such buildings, playing fields or other premises.

17. (1) If a person enters into, or is otherwise concerned in, an arrangement whereby—

(a) the retention or control by or on behalf of another (call him "A") of the proceeds of drug trafficking by A is facilitated (whether by concealment, removal from the jurisdiction, transfer to nominees or otherwise); or

(b) the proceeds of drug trafficking by A—

(i) are used to ensure that funds are placed at A's disposal, or

(ii) are used for A's benefit to acquire property by way of investment or otherwise, knowing or suspecting or having reasonable grounds to suspect that A is a person who carries on, or has carried on, drug trafficking, he is guilty of an offence.

(2) In this section, references to the proceeds of drug trafficking by any person include a reference to any property which, directly or indirectly, represented in his hands the proceeds of drug trafficking by him.

(3) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this section, it is a defence to prove—

Assisting another to retain the benefit of drug trafficking.

- (a) that he did not know or suspect that the agreement related to the proceeds of drug trafficking by A; or
- (b) that he did not know or suspect that by the arrangement the retention or control by or on behalf of A of those proceeds was facilitated or, as the case may be, that by the arrangement those proceeds were used as mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fourteen years.

Power to obtain information from doctors, etc. in certain circumstances.

18. (1) If it appears to the Minister that there exists in any area in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines a health or social problem caused by the extensive misuse of dangerous or otherwise harmful drugs in that area, he may, by notice in writing served on any doctor or druggist practising in or in the vicinity of that area, or on any person lawfully conducting a retail pharmacy business at any premises situated in, or in the vicinity of, that area, require him to furnish to the Minister, with respect to any such drugs specified in the notice and as regards any period so specified, such particulars as may be so specified relating to the quantities in which and the number and frequency of the occasions on which those drugs—

- (a) in the case of a doctor, were prescribed, administered or supplied by him;
- (b) in the case of a druggist, were supplied by him; or
- (c) in the case of a person conducting a retail pharmacy business, were supplied in the course of that business at any premises so situated which may be specified in the notice.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) may require any such particulars to be furnished in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice and, if served on a druggist or person conducting a retail pharmacy business, may require him to furnish the names and addresses of doctors on whose prescriptions any dangerous or otherwise harmful drugs to which the notice relates were supplied, but shall not require any person to furnish any particulars relating to the identity of any person for or to whom any such drug has been prescribed, administered or supplied.

(3) A person commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, proof of which shall lie on him, he fails to comply with any requirements to which he is subject by virtue of subsection (1).

(4) A person commits an offence if, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed under this section, he gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly gives any information which is so false.

19. (1) It is an offence for a person to contravene any regulation made under this Act other than regulations made in pursuance of section 12(2) (h) or (i).

Miscellaneous offences.

(2) It is an offence for a person to contravene a condition or other term of a licence issued under section 5 of a licence or other authority issued under regulations made under this Act, not being a licence issued under regulations made in pursuance of section 12(2) (i).

(3) A person commits an offence if, in purported compliance with any obligation to give information to which he is subject under or by virtue of regulations made under this Act, he gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly gives any information which is so false.

(4) A person commits an offence if, for the purpose of obtaining, whether for himself or another, the issue of renewal of a licence or other authority under this Act or under any regulations made under this Act, he—

- (a) makes any statement or gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly gives any information which is so false;
- (b) produces or otherwise makes use of any book, record or other document which to his knowledge contains any statement or information which he knows to be false in a material particular.

20. It is an offence for a person to attempt to commit an offence under any other provision of this Act or to incite or attempt to incite another to commit such an offence.

Attempts etc. to commit offences.

21. A person commits an offence if in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines he assists in or induces the commission in any place outside Saint Vincent and the Grenadines of an offence punishable under the provisions of a corresponding law in force in that place.

Assisting or inducing commission outside Saint Vincent and the Grenadines of offence punishable under a corresponding law.

22. Where any offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable and be proceeded against accordingly.

Offences by corporations.

Further powers to make regulations.

23. The Minister may, by regulations, make provision—

- (a) for excluding in such cases as may be prescribed—
  - (i) the application of any provision of this Act which create an offence; or
  - (ii) the application of section 80 and 82 of the Customs Act (or any similar sections of any law replacing the same) in so far as they apply in relation to a prohibition or restriction on importation or exportation having effect by virtue of section 5;
- (b) for the application of any provisions of this Act or regulations or orders thereunder to servants or agents of the Crown, subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as may be prescribed.

Cap. 302.

Powers to search and obtain evidence.

24. (1) A police officer or other person authorised in that behalf by a general or special order of the Minister shall, for the purpose of the execution of this Act, have the power to enter the premises of a person carrying on business as a producer or supplier of any controlled drug <sup>or a producer or supplier of a controlled drug</sup> and to demand the production of, and to inspect, any books or documents relating to dealings in any such drugs <sup>or a producer or supplier of a controlled drug</sup> and to inspect any stocks of any such drugs <sup>in subsection</sup>.

(2) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that any person is in possession of a controlled drug in contravention of this Act or any regulations made hereunder the police officer may, subject to subsections (3), (6) and (7)—

- (a) search that person, and detain him for the purpose of searching him;
- (b) search any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description in which the police officer suspects that the drug may be found, and for that purpose require the person in control of the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description to stop it;
- (c) seize and detain, for the purposes of proceedings under this Act, anything found in the course of the search which appears to the police officer to be evidence of an offence under this Act.

Amd by 32/1993

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) shall derogate from any power of search or any power to seize or detain property which is otherwise exercisable by a police officer.

(4) If a magistrate or a justice of the peace is satisfied, by information on oath, that there is reasonable ground for suspecting—

- (a) that any controlled drug is, in contravention of this Act or of any regulations made hereunder, in the possession of a person on any premises or in any place; or
- (b) that a document directly or indirectly relating to, or connected with, a transaction or dealing which was, or an intended transaction or dealing which would if carried out be, an offence under this Act, or in the case of a transaction or dealing carried out or intended to be carried out in a place outside Saint Vincent and the Grenadines an offence against the provisions of a corresponding law in force in that place, is in the possession of a person on any premises or in an place, he may issue a warrant authorising any police officer at any time or times within one month from the date of issue of the warrant, to enter, if need be by force, the premises or place named in the warrant, and to search such premises or place and any person found therein, and if there is any reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been committed in relation to any controlled drugs found on the premises or place or in the possession of any such person, or that a document so found is such a document as is mentioned in paragraph (b), to seize and detain those drugs or that document, as the case may be.

(5) A person commits an offence if he—

- (a) intentionally obstructs a person in the exercise of his powers under this section;
- (b) being the person in control of the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description fails to stop it when required to do so by a police officer under subsection (2) (b);
- (c) being a person being conveyed in a ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description prevents or intimidates the person in control of or any other person operating the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description from stopping when required to do so by a police officer under subsection (2) (b);

- (d) without the permission of the police officer concerned, leaves a ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description which has been stopped by a police officer under subsection (2) (b);
- (e) conceals from a person under subsection (1) any such books, documents, stocks or drugs as are mentioned in that subsection; or
- (f) without reasonable excuse (proof of which shall lie on him), fails to produce any such books or documents as are so mentioned where their production is demanded by a person in the exercise of his powers under that subsection.

(6) No person may be searched by any person of the opposite sex unless the consent of the person to be searched has first been obtained, or unless such search is made in the presence of some other person, not being a police officer, of the same sex.

(7) No article of a person's clothing may be removed from his person during a search at any place other than within a police station.

arrest.

25. (1) A police officer may arrest without warrant a person who has committed, or whom the police officer, with reasonable cause, suspects to have committed, an offence under this Act.

(2) Where any controlled drug is found on any premises searched under section 24(1), or in any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description stopped under section 24(2), the police officer who has made the search or stopped the ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description, as the case may be, may arrest without warrant any person in such premises or in such ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(3) This section shall not prejudice any power of arrest conferred by law apart from this section.

Committal to the High Court for sentence.

26. (1) Where, on the summary trial of an offence committed under this Act and triable either summarily or on indictment, a person who is not less than eighteen years of age is convicted of the offence, then, if on obtaining information that his character and antecedents are such that in the opinion of the magistrate greater punishment should be inflicted for the offence than the magistrate has power to inflict, the magistrate may commit that person in custody to the High Court for sentence and shall, as soon as practicable, transmit to the Registrar of the High Court the record of the proceedings.

(2) On receipt of the record, the Registrar of the High Court shall issue an order to the gaoler to bring the convicted person before a judge of the High Court at a time to be fixed by the judge.

(3) The judge shall enquire into the circumstances of the case and shall have power to deal with the convicted person as if he had just been convicted of the offence on indictment before the High Court.

27. (1) Except where expressly otherwise provided, the Fourth Schedule shall have effect, in accordance with subsection (2), with respect to the way in which offences under this Act are punishable on conviction. Prosecution and punishment of offences.

(2) In relation to an offence under a provision of this Act specified in the first column of the Fourth Schedule (the general nature of the offence being described in the second column)-

(a) the third column shows whether the offence is punishable on summary conviction or on the indictment or in either way;

(b) the fourth, fifth and sixth columns show respectively the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of the offence in the way specified in relation thereto in the third column (that is to say, summarily or on indictment) according to whether the controlled drug in relation to which the offence was committed was a Class A drug, a Class B drug or a Class C drug; and

(c) the seventh column shows the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of the offence in the way specified in relation thereto in the third column (that is to say, summarily or on indictment), whether or not the offence was committed in relation to a controlled drug and, if it was so committed, irrespective of whether the drug was a Class A drug, a Class B drug or a Class C drug.

(3) An offence under section 20 shall be punished on summary conviction, on indictment or in either way according to whether, under the Fourth Schedule, the substantive offence is punishable on summary conviction, on indictment or in either way; and the punishments which may be imposed on a person convicted of an offence under that section are the same as those which, under that Schedule, may be imposed on a person convicted of the substantive offence.

(4) In subsection (3) "the substantive offence" means the offence under this Act to which the attempt or, as the case may be, the incitement or attempted incitement mentioned in section 20 was directed.

(5) A magistrate may try an information or complaint for an offence under this Act if the information or complaint was laid or, as the case may be, made at any time within twelve months from the commission of the offence.

Forfeiture.

28. (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act other than a drug trafficking offence, the court shall order the forfeiture to the Crown of any opium pipe or other article or the controlled drug in respect of which the offence was committed and all receptacles of any kind whatsoever found containing the controlled drug and any ship, vessel, boat, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance of any description, proved to have contained the opium pipe or other article or controlled drug or anything shown to the satisfaction of the court to relate to the offence.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), where a person is convicted of a drug trafficking offence the court shall, in passing sentence, order forfeiture to the Crown of—

- (a) any article;
- (b) any money; or
- (c) any valuable consideration, relating or the offence.

(3) Forfeiture under this section shall extend—

- (a) to any property which there is reason to believe has been obtained from the proceeds of anything relating to the offence for which a person is convicted under this Act or to a conspiracy to commit any such offence; or
- (b) to any thing into which any such property has been converted.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), forfeiture under this section may be applied to the treatment and rehabilitation of persons addicted (within the meaning of the regulations) to controlled drugs of any description.

(5) Controlled drugs forfeited under this section shall be delivered to the Minister for disposal.

Certificate of analyst admissible in evidence.

29. (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a certificate of an analyst purporting to be signed by him stating that he has analysed or examined a substance and stating the result of such analysis or examination is admissible in evidence in any prosecution under this Act of the matters stated therein if it is proved by other evidence that the seals or other fastenings of the container of the substance or thing analysed and in respect of which the certificate was given were intact at the time the container was delivered to him.

Certificate of analyst admissible in evidence.

(2) No evidence shall be required by the court as to the signature or qualifications of the person purporting to have signed the certificate.

(3) No certificate shall be received in evidence unless the party intending to produce it has given to the other parties five days notice of such intention and has furnished with such notice a copy of the certificate.

Amended by Act 32/1993

(4) In any prosecution under this Act, either of the parties may require the attendance of an analyst to give evidence and in such case the costs of his attendance shall, unless the judge or magistrate orders otherwise, be payable by the party so requiring.

9/1/1995

30. (1) This section applies to offences under any of the following provisions of this Act, that is to say, section 6(2) and (3), section 7(2) and (3), section 8(2) and section 11.

Proof of lack of knowledge etc., to be a defence in proceedings for certain offences.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), in any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that he neither knew of, nor suspected, not had reason to suspect, the existence of some fact alleged by the prosecution which it is necessary for the prosecution to prove if he is to be convicted of the offence charged.

(3) Where in any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies it is necessary, if the accused is to be convicted of the offence charged, for the prosecution to prove that some substance or product involved in the alleged offence was the controlled drug which the prosecution alleges it to have been, and it is proved that the substance or product in question was that controlled drug, the accused—

- (a) shall not be acquitted of the offence charge by reason only of proving that he neither knew, nor suspect, nor had reason to suspect, that the substance or product in question was the particular controlled drug alleged; but
- (b) shall be acquitted thereof—
  - (i) if he proves that he neither believed, nor suspected, that the substance or product in question was a controlled drug; or

(ii) if he proves that he believed the substance or product in question to be a controlled drug, or a controlled drug of a description, such that if it had in fact been that controlled drug or a controlled drug of that description, he would not at the material time been committing any offence to which this section applies.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prejudice any defence which it is open to a person charged with an offence to which this section applies to raise apart from this section.

Service of documents.

31. (1) Any notice or other document required or authorised by any provision of this Act to be served on any person may be served on him either by delivering it to him or by leaving it at his proper address or by sending it by post.

(2) Any notice or other document so required or authorised to be served on a body corporate shall be duly served if it is served on the secretary or clerk of that body.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the proper address of any person shall, in the case of the secretary or clerk of a body corporate, be that of the registered or principal office of that body, and in any other case shall be the last address of the person to be served which is known to the Minister.

Licences and authorities.

32. A licence or other authority issued by the Minister for the purposes of this Act or of regulations made under this Act may be, to any degree, general or specific, issued on such terms and subject to such conditions (including in the case of a licence the payment of a prescribed fee) as the Minister thinks proper, and may be modified or revoked by him at any time.

General provisions as to regulations.

33. Regulations made by the Minister under any provision of this Act—

- (a) may make different provisions in relation to different controlled drugs, different classes of persons, different provisions of this Act or other different cases or circumstances; and
- (b) may make the opinion, consent or approval of a prescribed authority or of any person authorised in a prescribed manner material for purposes of any provision of the regulations; and
- (c) may contain such supplementary, incidental and transitional provisions as appear expedient to the Minister.

34. The Minister may conduct, or assist in conducting, research into any matter relating to the misuse of dangerous or otherwise harmful drugs. Research.

35. (1) In this Act the expression "corresponding law" means a law stated in a certificate purporting to be issued by or on behalf of the government of a country outside Saint Vincent and the Grenadines to be a law providing for the control and regulation in that country of the production, supply, use, export and import of drugs and other substance in accordance with the provisions of the Single Convention of Narcotic Drugs signed at New York on 30th March 1961 or a law providing for the control and regulation in that country of the production, supply, use, export and import of dangerous or otherwise harmful drugs in pursuance of any treaty, convention or other agreement or arrangement to which the government of that country and the Government of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines are for the time being parties. Meaning of "corresponding law", and evidence of certain matters by certificate.

(2) A statement in any such certificate as aforesaid to the effect that any facts constitute an offence against the law mentioned in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the matters stated.

36. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code or of any other law to the contrary, an appeal from conviction and/or sentence in respect of proceedings for offences under this Act shall not have the effect of suspending the execution of the decision appealed against; but the court before which a person has been convicted and/or sentenced in respect of an offence under this Act, or to which an appeal has been lodged in respect of an offence under this Act, may, upon application made with notice to all parties concerned, grant a stay of execution of the decision appealed against on such conditions as the court may deem fit to impose, provided that any party concerned in the appeal shall be heard in opposition to such application or otherwise. Appeal not to operate as a stay.
Cap. 125.

37. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1937, any subsidiary legislation thereunder which is in conformity with this Act shall continue to apply until regulations are made under this Act. Saving.
