MULTILATERAL EVALUATION MECHANISM (MEM)

EVALUATION QUESTIONNAIRE

SEVENTH EVALUATION ROUND 2016-2018
INSTITUTIONAL STRENGTHENING
Objective 1

Establish and/or strengthen national drug authorities, placing them at a high political level and providing them with the necessary capabilities and competencies to coordinate national drug policies in the stages of formulation, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation.

If yes:

9.a. Please describe.

---

\(^4\) Relevant actors: Includes civil society, scientific community, academia, and government at the national, regional and local levels, women’s rights organizations, LGBTI groups, among others.

\(^5\) Priority areas: e.g.: Institutional strengthening, demand reduction, supply reduction, control measures and international cooperation.
10. Does your country’s national drug authority have, in its central structure, an office or operational unit to promote, coordinate, train and provide technical support on drug-related issues to local governments or stakeholders?

Yes  No

If yes:

10.a. Please describe which of these functions are covered by this office or operational unit.

11. Does the national drug authority of your country have coordinators, offices or representatives within your country’s territories, as part of a decentralized operational and coordination structure at the local level, to respond to the drug problem?

Yes  No

If yes,

11.a. Please describe how does the decentralized operational and coordination structure at the local level functions.

12. Does your country have a specific and stable mechanism or program to transfer funds or finance drug initiatives or projects implemented by local municipalities or governments?

Yes  No

If yes:

12.a. Please describe this mechanism or program.
13. Does your country’s national drug plan or strategy take into account the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) of the 2030 Agenda⁶?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes:

13.a. Please list every action and SDG goal taken into account in your country’s drug plan strategy⁷.

________________________________________________________________________

14. Is the human rights perspective included in your country’s national drug plan or strategy⁸?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes:

14.a. Please explain how the human rights perspective is included.

________________________________________________________________________

⁶ Available at: http://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/sustainable-development-goals/

⁷ The related SDG goals are: Goal 1: “End poverty in all its forms everywhere;” Goal 2: “End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture;” Goal 3: “Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages;” Goal 5: “Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls;” Goal 15: “Protect, restore and promote sustainable use of terrestrial ecosystems, sustainably manage forests, combat desertification, and halt and reverse land degradation and halt biodiversity loss;” Goal 16: “Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels;” Goal 17: “Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development.”

⁸ Take into account UNGASS operational recommendations 2016 (Resolution A/S-30/L.1). “Operational recommendations on intersectorial matters: drugs and human rights, youth, children and women and communities. The drugs and human rights, youth, women, children, the vulnerable members of communities and society. Proportional policies and responses and efficient, such as legal guarantees and safeguarding that relate to the criminal proceeding and the justice sector.” United Nations, Outcome document of the thirtieth special session of the General Assembly, Our joint commitment to effectively addressing and countering the world drug problem (New York, 2016).
15. Does your national drug plan or strategy specifically include a gender approach\(^9\)?

| Yes | No |

If yes:

15.a. Please explain how the gender approach was included, taking into account the appropriate international instruments. Indicate if the gender approach has a legal basis.

_____________________________________________________________________

15.b. Please indicate whether or not the national drug authority receives technical support for implementing programs with a gender approach.

_____________________________________________________________________

16. Does the national drug plan or strategy include development with social inclusion?

| Yes | No |

If yes:

16.a. Please explain how is development with social inclusion being considered.

_____________________________________________________________________

\(^9\) The gender perspective entails recognizing that drug policies have a differential impact on women and men and if these differences are not specifically addressed they tend to amplify and deepen the existing inequalities in human development, product of an androcentric and patriarchal society. Inclusion of a gender perspective entails the actions undertaken within the drug policies framework contributing to closing the gender gap. The UNGASS 2016 Resolution notes “Mainstream a gender perspective into and ensure the involvement of women in all stages of the development, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of drug policies and programmes, develop and disseminate gender-sensitive and age-appropriate measures that take into account the specific needs and circumstances faced by women and girls with regard to the world drug problem and, as States parties, implement the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women.” United Nations, Outcome document of the thirtieth special session of the General Assembly, Our joint commitment to effectively addressing and countering the world drug problem (New York, 2016).
CONTEXT OBSERVATIONS FOR OBJECTIVE 2:

AGENCY AND OFFICIAL PROVIDING INFORMATION:

17. Does your country have means to coordinate between agencies responsible for drug policies and those responsible for other public strategies and/or policies\(^{10}\)?

| Yes | No |

18. Does your country have multisectoral plans and programs aimed at preventing and counteracting the socio-economic causes and consequences of the drug problem, particularly those affecting human rights, public health, gender and development?

| Yes | No |

19. What are the issues included (e.g.: crime prevention, violence, victimization, social exclusion, corruption and gender approach) in the drafting of national social public policy to address the socio-economic causes and consequences of the drug problem?

CONTEXT OBSERVATIONS FOR OBJECTIVE 3:

---

\(^{10}\) For example: health care, human services, criminal justice, education and labor.
20. Does your country have a national observatory on drugs (or similar technical office) with financial, human and technological resources?

[ ] Yes  [ ] No

If yes:

20.a. Does the national observatory on drugs have a legal basis?

[ ] Yes  [ ] No

If yes:

20.a.1. Please attach the law or decree establishing the national observatory on drugs or web link.

[ ]

21. Does the national observatory on drugs have a budget to carry out its functions?

[ ] Yes  [ ] No

22. Does the national observatory on drugs have a national drug information network\(^\text{11}\)?

[ ] Yes  [ ] No

\(^{11}\) According to the Manual for the Implementation of a National Observatory on Drugs that was drafted jointly by the European Monitoring Centre for Drugs and Drug Addiction (EMCDDA) and Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission/Organization of American States (CICAD/OAS):

National Drug Observatory: organization whose purpose is to provide its country with factual, objective, reliable and comparable information on drugs, drug addiction and its consequences.

National Drug Information Network: integrates general and specialized sources of advanced information and know-how, as well as systematic monitoring programs and ad hoc studies on target groups.

National Information System on Drugs: organized set of elements that allow the interaction of stakeholders with the purpose of accessing, collecting, storing and transforming data into relevant information to obtain a comprehensive overview of the drug situation in the country, and consists of two fundamental components: a national data collection network and a national drug observatory.

CONTEXT OBSERVATIONS FOR OBJECTIVE 4:

AGENCY AND OFFICIAL PROVIDING INFORMATION:
27. Does your country's law provide for alternative measures to incarceration\textsuperscript{13} for low-level drug offenses\textsuperscript{14}?

\begin{tabular}{ll}
Yes & No \end{tabular}

If yes:

27.a. Please indicate the name of the law and attach the corresponding document or web link.

\begin{itemize}
\item \textbf{13} The 2015 \textit{CICAD Technical Report on Alternatives to Incarceration for Drug-related Offenses} defines alternatives to incarceration as:
\begin{quote}
Any measure (whether legal reforms, strategies, programs or policies) intended to: i) reduce criminal prosecution, ii) limit the use of incarceration as a punishment, or iii) decrease the time of actual deprivation of liberty in the event of incarceration, for individuals who have committed drug-related offenses.
\end{quote}

In this regard, the Report notes:
\begin{quote}
Alternatives to incarceration can be grouped into three broad categories according to the stage in judicial proceedings at which they occur. Accordingly, this report refers to: a) Measures taken prior to the opening of a criminal proceeding, and aimed at limiting entry into the criminal justice system; b) Measures applied during criminal proceedings, and aimed at either preventing the criminal case from resulting in incarceration, or making the incarceration proportional to the offense; and c) Measures for prison populations, aimed at providing for early release of convicted and imprisoned individuals along with social integration strategies.
\end{quote}

In order to recognize, review and foster alternatives to incarceration the States can assess suitability of implementation, foster and/or amend legislation, changes to drug policies or implement specific programs.

\item \textbf{14} Low-level offenses are referred to crimes punishable with a maximum sentencing up to a year of incarceration/imprisonment, or crimes punishable with a minimum sentencing of less than six months of incarceration/imprisonment. Notwithstanding those established by the respective legal systems of member states.
27.b. Do the alternative measures to incarceration for low-level drug-related offenses take into account gender differences in accordance to the relevant international instruments?

Yes  No

If yes:

27.b.1. Please explain how gender differences are taken into account.

27.c. Have mechanisms been developed to monitor and evaluate the impact of implementing alternative measures to incarceration for low-level drug offenses?

Yes  No

If yes:

27.c.1. Please indicate which agency is responsible for implementing the monitoring and evaluation mechanisms.

27.c.2. Do these mechanisms involve academic and research institutions?

Yes  No

27.c.3. Please explain how these mechanisms work.

If no:

27.d. Is there any legislative reform initiative that takes into account the implementation of these measures?

Yes  No

---

\(^{15}\) Social integration in relation to the drug phenomenon means looking both at the processes used for individuals affected by drug abuse and at each of the contexts of intervention. By so doing, we attempt to achieve a consistent, complementary vision and approach to the various factors that determine or affect pathways for prevention, mitigation, and/or rehabilitation, influencing these factors in coordination with other institutions and helping individuals, families, and groups directly affected by the problem to achieve full inclusion with respect to their personal relationships and development and, in general, their life in society. Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission (CICAD), Valdivia Declaration, On Social Integration: Exclusion and Drugs (Valdivia, Chile, 2014). 29. Does your country have legislation on proportionate sentencing, in particular for low-level drug-related offenses?

Yes [ ]  No [ ]

If yes:

29.a. Please indicate the name of the legislation and attach the corresponding document or web link.

30. Does your country have special courts or tribunals for low-level drug-related offenses?

Yes [ ]  No [ ]

If yes:

30.a. Please describe the special courts or tribunals and attach corresponding document or web link.

\(^1\) A program should include the following minimum components: objectives, activities, work plan, identified and assigned resources, target population, definition of a location and a time frame for its execution. The brief and sporadic activities, actions or talks are not considered a program.

\(^2\) Quality treatment and adapted to the needs of each individual that is directly or indirectly affected by drug and alcohol use, always using hospitalization as a last therapeutic resource and when it is properly justified. It can be provided in coordination with community and/or neighborhood centers, primary health care centers, detoxification units, devices specialized in acute care and clinical stabilization, outpatient approaches, full or half-day care centers, halfway alternatives and residential treatments. Rehabilitation is considered as a stage of the treatment process.

\(^3\) Any social intervention with the aim of integrating former or current problem drug users into the community. The three ‘pillars’ of social integration are (1) housing, (2) education and (3) employment (including vocational training). May also be referred to as “social re-integration or social re-insertion.”

\(^4\) Inter-cultural approach: Including the cultural diversity and the needs related to it in designing health programs and services, while respecting, accompanying and valuing cultural differences in practice and from a viewpoint of community actors.

\(^5\) Age difference approach: refers to the needs during different life stages: childhood, adolescence, adulthood.
2. Does your country take into account the guidelines and recommendations of specialized international organizations\(^6\) in establishing demand reduction programs?

5. Has your country carried out any process\(^9\) or intermediate outcome evaluations\(^10\) of drug abuse prevention programs?

\(^7\) Mechanisms for dissemination of and access to information: Tools for the promotion and dissemination of prevention, treatment and social integration services. Examples of dissemination of and access to information mechanisms are: social networks, mass media publicity, brochures, toll-free phone lines, information published in governmental web portals, dissemination through publicity and communication campaigns.

\(^8\) The instruments referred to are those of diagnostics, process, results and audits. The mode of collecting information could be quantitative and/or qualitative, for example: structured surveys, in-depth interviews, etc.

\(^9\) Process evaluation: includes documenting each step of the design of a specific intervention, to determine its efficacy, efficiency and effectiveness. It seeks to determine whether the intervention efficiently meets its short term goals, has successfully reached the target population, and the materials used are appropriate.

\(^10\) Intermediate outcome evaluation: assesses the effectiveness of the program; that is, what the project is expected to change. The outcome may include changes in behavior, status, attitude or certification of the beneficiaries after receiving the program’s goods or services. The importance of the intermediate outcome evaluation lies in the expectation that the results will drive the final outcome (impact) of the program or project.

\(^{11}\) Title of evaluation performed: Please indicate the title of the evaluations, the institutions that carried out the evaluations and bibliographical references.

\(^{12}\) Impact evaluation: This is an assessment of the final outcomes of key actions or inputs relative to what would have occurred in the absence of an intervention. These results indicate a change in the conditions of the target population directly attributable to these actions. In some instances it is difficult to carry out these measurements, due to the difficulty in isolating the effects of other external variables and/or because many of these effects are long term.

<tr>

<td>• Junior high &amp; high school (secondary school)</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

15 Target population: population group that the program seeks to address. The size of the target population will depend on the type of program that is to be implemented. In the case of universal prevention programs, it will be the entire population group, while selective or indicated prevention programs will target the population “at risk” or at “high risk.”

16 Coverage rate: population group actually served by a program expressed as a percentage of the target population.

\text{Coverage rate} = \left( \frac{\text{Size of population served}}{\text{Size of target group}} \right) \times 100

Example: Target population = all primary school children in the country = 10,000
Population served = primary school children in the country to whom the prevention program was delivered during the year = 1,000

Coverage rate = \( \frac{1,000}{10,000} \times 100 = 10\% \)

17 Type of program:

- Universal prevention: Target the general population, such as all students in a school. This level of prevention strengthens values, attitudes, knowledge and abilities that allow the child or youth to lead a healthy and drug-free lifestyle.
- Selective prevention: Target at-risk groups or subgroups of the general population, such as children of drug-users or poor school achievers.
- Indicated prevention: Are designed for people who are already experimenting with drugs or who exhibit other risky behaviors.

Also, hold their own diverse concepts of development, based on their traditional values, visions, needs and priorities.

\(^{20}\) Workplace drug abuse programs may include drug and alcohol abuse prevention and education for employees and management; employee assistance programs; referral to and/or financial assistance for treatment for substance abuse; on-site facilities made available for Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) and Narcotics Anonymous (NA) groups; and written policies about non-use of alcohol and other licit and illicit drugs on the job.

\(^{21}\) Other groups at risk: Each member state should determine those population groups that may, in that country, be at higher risk for the use of drugs. These high-risk groups might include prostitutes, migrants, HIV-positive individuals, homeless people, street youth and injecting drug users.

10.b. Do these programs and devices take into account the International Standards for the Treatment of Drug Use Disorders of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and World Health Organization (WHO)?

Yes [ ] No [ ]

If yes:

---

\(^{22}\) From a mental health perspective, the notion of devices refers to the idea of different assistance procedures. A device is one that is constructed in a cunning way and focuses actions to obtain measurable results, in order to reach a defined objective, in this case being the highest level of health and well-being, as possible.

\(^{23}\) Problematic drug use (PDU) is what persons have known as drug abusers or dependents. Equivalent to the “hazardous use,” “abuse” and “dependence” categories, described in the WHO ICD-10 and the American Psychiatric Association DSM-IV. This type of use tends to be related to personal or family difficulties and with adverse social and economic circumstances.
10.b.1. Please explain how your country monitors compliance with these standards.

11. Does your country have mechanisms to facilitate access and ensure the quality of treatment services for those with problematic drug use disorders?

11.d. Has your country established and maintained cooperative relationships with governmental/non-governmental organizations that provide social and community support services, with a gender perspective, for the social integration of vulnerable populations?

Yes  No

If yes:
11.d.1. Please briefly describe the actions carried out within this cooperation framework.

12. Does your country have mechanisms to continually monitor and evaluate the results of care, treatment and social integration programs?

Yes  No

If yes:

12.a. Please indicate if the gender and human rights approaches were taken into account during the evaluation and monitoring of care, treatment and social integration programs.

13. Does your country have mechanisms to protect the rights of people with problematic drug use in treatment programs and services?

Yes  No

If yes:

13.a. Please briefly describe these mechanisms.

13.b. Do these mechanisms have protocols to protect the confidentiality of the information provided by the recipients of these services?

Yes  No

13.c. Do these mechanisms include the process of providing adequate information on treatment and informed consent?
14. Does your country have supervisory mechanisms for establishments that offer treatment and rehabilitation services for those with problematic drug use?

Yes  No

If yes:

14.a. Please briefly describe how your country’s monitoring mechanism operates.

14.b. Can the supervisory mechanisms be used to systematize and compile information on the services being implemented?

2 Drug characterization and impurity profiling: The use of scientific laboratory information in support of law enforcement operation work, and is aimed at establishing links between drug samples. It consists of the systematic collection and sharing, in a standardized form, of physical and chemical information on a drug seizure, including the analysis and use of trace impurities to link different drug samples.

3 New psychoactive substances (NPS): Substances of abuse, either in a pure form or a preparation, that are not controlled by the 1961 Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs or the 1971 Convention on Psychotropic Substances, but which may pose a public health threat. The term “new” does not necessarily refer to new inventions — several NPS were first synthesized 40 years ago — but to substances that have recently become available on the market.
